

The Architectural Brilliance of Irving J. Gill

with Susan Stone

Saturday, February 25th, 2017

in the Coronado Museum & CHA Lecture Hall

Ages 8 and up
10 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

This workshop will focus on celebrating Irving Gill through drawing, painting and mixed media. Step by step, young artists will create a painting and learn the many ways students can create compositions that focus on architectural design.

To reserve a spot for your student at this workshop, email kestrada@coronadohistory.org

[Click here to email
kestrada@coronadohistory.org](mailto:kestrada@coronadohistory.org)

Suggested donation of $5 per participant is greatly appreciated.

Please note that all participants must have a signed waiver.

Susan Stone is a professional artist with more than 20 years of experience as a painter, illustrator, graphic designer, art educator and instructor. To see more of her art visit www.artbysusanstone.com or www.facebook.com/artistsusanstone

Join CHA on Saturday, February 25th for “The Architectural Brilliance of Irving J. Gill”. Led by local artist Susan Stone, this workshop will focus on celebrating Irving Gill through drawing, painting and mixed media. Step by step, young artist will create a painting and learn the many ways students can create compositions that focus on architectural design.

Participants ages 8-18 are welcome to attend. The session will run from 10:00am-11:30am.

To reserve a spot for your student at this workshop, email kestrada@coronadohistory.org. Please note that a small donation in the amount of $5 is requested to cover the cost of materials.

Susan Stone is a professional artist with more than 20 years of experience as a painter, illustrator, graphic designer, art educator and instructor. To see more of her art visit www.artbysusanstone.com or www.facebook.com/artistsusanstone

All participants must have a completed participation waiver on file before participating in our program.