Dear Islander Families,

As we continue in our spring semester, we want to remind our seniors/12th graders especially to keep current on available contests and scholarships open to our students from outside entities. There is a tab on our website specifically for listing opportunities for our students: <http://chs.coronadousd.net/academics/contests-scholarships/>

The San Diego Foundation and Kipperman Family offer a special scholarship open to CHS students only. The deadline is this

Later in the spring, CHS will release its own Senior Awards application, and we will encourage all students to apply for awards designated by Coronado families, businesses, and community organizations, with recipients determined by a committee of CHS faculty members. A calendar of senior events, deadlines, and reminders will be sent out in February.

Military families are invited to a presentation on Thursday, February 1 from 6-7:30 PM in the CHS Multi-Purpose room about the GI Bill and educational resources available to
