

Master The SAT

CLASS SESSION DATES

For May 6th SAT:
April 8, 22 and 29
9am - 12pm, Coronado HS

Each seminar will provide nine hours of expert instruction in test preparation skills. Students will be given testing materials from the College Board and homework assignments to enhance understanding of the concepts covered in class.

The classes review all three areas of the SAT (Reading, Writing, and Mathematics) along with the strategies that optimize each student's performance on the test. The main focus of the program will be preparation for the new 2016 SAT. The final class of each program will briefly cover the similarities and differences between the SAT and the ACT.

Register Now: CoronadoEnrichment.org

Cost: $175 + $10 Supply Fee · Space Is Limited

Proceeds benefit Coronado Unified School District · Limited scholarship funds available

The class is taught by Steve Reiss, owner of the Reiss SAT Seminars and the Math Magician. Since 1988, Reiss has taught more than 300 SAT Seminars, including fifteen for the College and Career Center of Coronado High School. In addition to his teaching duties, Reiss has authored, co-authored, and edited 51 test preparation books. Reiss is also a member of Mensa, the High IQ Society, which grants membership to the top 2% of SAT test takers. Private instruction is also available for interested students. For more information, please contact Steve Reiss at 619-423-4057 or via his websites, www.reissat.com and www.themathmagician.com.

Classes Powered By

Coronado Schools
FOUNDATION

Questions & info: 619-437-8059, ext. 3 or 4

Walk in registration: CSF Offices, 201 Sixth St, Coronado